

Our client is the leader in online classifieds, with nine brands that span the globe. Their sites help people find whatever they're looking for in their local communities — whether it's a job, an apartment, a sofa, a car, a concert ticket, financial services or new friends. Every connection made or item found makes a difference by creating a world where people share more and waste less.

People who want to connect and trade visit the sites because they're fun, easy to use and built on trust. Nine unique brands offer online classifieds in more than 1,000 cities around the world.

The Classifieds Group is always looking for high-energy, self-motivated, committed individuals who are passionate about their work. Their team members enjoy a challenging environment that places the highest value on innovation, accountability and playing to win. The Classifieds Group combines the entrepreneurial energy of a start-up with the resources and trusted leadership of a major corporation. The culture is based on open and honest communication, respect for other points of view and a spirit of fun that keeps egos in check.

They offer empowering roles worldwide with a focus on creativity, competitive pay and benefits, professional growth, and performance-focused rewards.

Their job-board currently has a role within the team and are looking for a Business Development Manager to serve the Top 250 Recruitment Consultancies in the UK.

This role has been created as a result of the rapid growth of the recruitment channel. The main objective of the role is to focus on accelerating growth whilst nurturing and developing established relationships.

The role is field-based eighty percent of the time and office-based for the remainder. The expectation will be to arrange and attend meetings with both existing clients and prospects. Meetings will involve presenting structured sales solutions based on the client's or prospect's needs in line with the Gumtree product portfolio.
